INTRODUCTION

The steady growth of the Central Film Library and the extensive use of Visual Aids materials by schools, colleges and other institutions throughout Ghana necessitated the production of a comprehensive catalogue of films in 1960 to help borrowers in their search for suitable films as teaching aids.

With this same purpose the "Catalogue of Ghana Films" has been produced to assist borrowers, mainly those outside Ghana, who wish to see or show films on Ghana.

The Central Film Library in Accra distributes both documentary and educational films, and copies of most of these are held in the Ghana Overseas missions by the Information Officers, from whom they may be borrowed free of charge.

Unless otherwise stated, all our films are in black and white, 16mm size with sound. They have been broadly classified and grouped in their respective categories, followed by brief synopses and an indication of their running time.

This catalogue provides a complete reference to films from Ghana, mostly produced by the Ghana Film Production Corporation. The Ghana Government holds their distribution rights and enquiries regarding commercial distribution or purchase should be made in writing to the Producer-Director, Ghana Film Production Corporation, P.O. Box M.83, Accra, Ghana. General enquiries relating to this catalogue should be addressed to the Director of Information Services, Cinema Division, P.O. Box 745, Accra.

An ALPHABETICAL INDEX OF TITLES will be found at the end of the catalogue.

1. Films may be borrowed free of charge. They are not intended for commercial exhibition. They should be booked at least one week before the date of showing.
2. To book films the borrower should forward the forms in duplicate. One of the forms will be returned indicating films available, date of despatch, and the date each film is due back at the library.
3. The form is divided into two parts to allow a second choice of films. The first selection will be sent when possible. Not more than six films may be borrowed at a time.
4. Films should be returned within the period specified on the form. If for some unavoidable reasons they cannot be returned at time indicated this office should be notified immediately.
5. Films will be sent to borrowers prepaid and borrowers are responsible for return postage and for any damage to films while in their care.
6. Films should be rewound on their original reels after use, and replaced in their containers and well wrapped for return.
